

Public Allies Chicago Advisory Board

Kanwar Singh (Local Board Chair):

Senior Vice President of UBS, and board member of Public Allies National Office.

Ian Larkin: Managing Director and Founder of Maranon Capital.

Ian is active in the community and serves on the board of Springboard, Public Allies and Redmoon Theater.

Julian Posada: President - Chicago Fire, Founder and President of Café Media

Julian oversees the vision and strategy of his fast growing media company that targets 2nd and 3rd generation Hispanics through a combination of print, event, e-newsletters and web platforms.

Anissa Listak (Development Chair): Founder of Urban Teacher Residency United (UTRU).

Kendra Hartman: In house attorney at Gehl Foods. A former litigation attorney at Sonnenschein Nath & Rosenthal with extensive experience representing communities via extensive pro-bono work including victims of Hurricane Katrina, health insurance class action cases and civil rights suits.

Anupy Singla: A free-lance writer with extensive media experience. She also is the founder of Indian As Apple Pie, a web-based blog and cooking medium geared toward families attempting to preserve their cultural heritage in America.

Mark Grossmann: A partner at Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP where he represents and counsels institutional and entrepreneurial corporate clients in the technology, manufacturing, real estate, retail, parking, security and health care industries, mergers and acquisitions, issuers and investors in equity and debt financings and recapitalizations.

Dana McLaughlin: Dana comes to Public Allies with a background as a financial analyst, private investment management and corporate development experience with organizations including Banc of America Securities, Nautic Partners and The Tribune Company.

Credell Walls: Alumni of Public Allies (class of '94) and Illinois State Coordinator of Roots & Shoots.

Jan Anne Dubin: Principal at Jan Anne Dubin Consulting, a client loyalty and business development consulting. Jan is a member of The University of Chicago, Women's Business Group; the Senior Business Women's Forum and is a founding member of the Professional Women's Club of Chicago as well as a recipient of the Anti Defamation League's Distinguished Community Leadership Award.

National Board Members supporting and advising our Local Site

Leif Elsmo: University of Chicago, National Board Member, Local Advisor and former Public Allies Program Director and Alumni of our program.

Bill Graustein (National Chair): is lead trustee of the William Caspar Graustein Memorial Fund in Hamden, CT. A former Geophysics Researcher at Yale University, he is a leader in promoting collaborative values-based civic leadership in Connecticut and across the country.